Indiana State Excise Police Announce April Activity for Gary Enforcement Initiatives

Gary, In – During the month of April Indiana State Excise Police officers cited the following businesses:

Trocadero Lounge 5013 W. 15th Ave was cited for sale of tobacco with an expired certificate and retail to retail purchasing of alcohol.

Valu Mart 3400 W. 15th St. was cited for sale of tobacco with an expired certificate.

Mr. B's Elbow Room 200 W. 25th Ave. was cited for failure to meet minimum food requirements.

Excise officers also arrested Aaron Johnson, age 32 on April 3rd for possession of cocaine, possession of marijuana and fleeing law enforcement.

Officers arrested four people for driving while suspended, and one person for operating while intoxicated.

Eight summonses were issued for consuming alcohol while driving, 27 for open containers in a motor vehicle, one littering and 14 traffic citations were issued.

The excise police would like to remind everyone that it is illegal to operate a motor vehicle while consuming alcohol and to have open alcohol containers in a motor vehicle.
